

A FREE RESOURCE:

First and foremost, Francis Schaeffer Studies is a resource for the study of the works of Francis and Edith Schaeffer. It was founded on January 1st, 2011 by Dan Guinn and Jason Schaitel for the purpose of assisting in passing the works of the Schaeffer's on to the next generation. It is our desire to make their thought and teaching more accessible for general inquiry. Francis Schaeffer Studies is a free service to the Francis Schaeffer and L'Abri community at large. We both promote and serve by creating web content such as writing, creating graphics and videos, and doing various projects to this end. Likewise, we maintain a robust social media presence that provides interaction around their thought and works.

OUR SCRIPTURAL MANDATE:

Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith.
(Hebrews 13:7 ESV)

A SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE:

Countless ministries have been influenced by Dr. Schaeffer's words and we talk to scholar after scholar who readily admit that it was his teaching that first opened their mind to think without committing intellectual suicide.

WHY SCHAEFFER?:

Dr. Schaeffer is just one of many possible historical figures one might study who have valuable things to say. Yet Dr. Schaeffer is perhaps unique in that what he is saying has so much relevance to learning what is needed to live in a post-Christian culture. We can think of few others who so consistently put forward the historic Christian position in such a way that so profoundly speaks to our current situation.

"Schaeffer is not an icon to be venerated, but a Christian scholar evangelist of exceptional cloth from whom we can learn much in or passion to reach the nations for Christ." ~ Dr. Bruce A Little, Custodian of the Francis Schaeffer Collection at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

SCHAEFFER ACQUISITIONS:

Francis Schaeffer Studies regularly acquires materials that have become publically available. This material is often digitized and shared with other Schaeffer scholars and institutions.

DOCUMENTARIES & INTERVIEWS:

Some of our most important work involves traveling and interviewing scholars and those who knew Dr. Schaeffer. We continue to film our Schaeffer Legacy Project and various documentary projects, which are made available on our YouTube channel.

SOCIAL MEDIA:

Francis Schaeffer Studies retains a robust following on social media designed to inspire interaction around the thought of Francis and Edith Schaeffer for both student and scholar alike. Our desire is to encourage others to read Dr. Schaeffer themselves and grow spiritually through the examination of the truth content conveyed. Find us on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and others.

A LASTING RESOURCE:

There is a desire to create a lasting resource for the next generation to explore. Our web site contains a reference of all of Francis and Edith's works and we have produced over 80 videos for public viewing, with more on the horizon. By preserving Schaeffer materials, we are collecting and preserving public artifacts that might not be easily acquired by archival institutions. We feel that this will have lasting implications for the study of Dr. Schaeffer for future generations.

SCHAEFFER EVENTS:

Francis Schaeffer Studies is involved in both creating local events and classes, but also following and promoting the events of L'Abri and other Schaeffer-related ministries. Our desire is to encourage others to interact with the thought of Francis Schaeffer and those who have been inspired by him. Within these ministries are the ongoing legacy of Francis Schaeffer and their teachers are those whom we see as our mentors in this work. We long to encourage others to learn from them.
